

Learning and development from Landmark.

A Landmark Academy guide

Why training matters

Landmark Information offers a programme of Continuing Professional Development (CPD) courses, webinars and training content designed to work for you and your law firm.

Our training supports both personal development and a stronger understanding of environmental risk in property transactions. Content is aligned with current policy, practice requirements and the continuing competence obligations set by The Solicitors Regulation Authority (SRA), Council for Licensed Conveyancers (CLC) and CILEX.

Ongoing professional development is a regulatory requirement and a key part of maintaining competence and managing risk.

Continued learning helps you:

- Demonstrate compliance
- Protect clients
- Uphold professional standards

Landmark: the experts, experts rely on

What we offer

Our training is structured across three core areas, helping you build knowledge, manage risk and respond to emerging challenges:

Essential learning

Core modules designed to build or refresh knowledge of environmental risks in property transactions.

Includes practical, workshop-led sessions with real-world examples.

Compliance and risk reporting

Focused guidance on selecting and interpreting the right reports for different transaction types.

Delivered through interactive sessions, case studies and practical application.

Professional services and specialist topics

Deeper insight into complex environmental risk as well as emerging risks areas such as sustainability, ESG (Environmental, Social and Governance) and climate change.

Supported by expert-led content and specialist perspectives.

How we deliver learning

- Interactive workshops
- Case studies and real-world scenarios
- Practical, applied learning

Bespoke training available

We can tailor sessions to your firm's specific needs and areas of focus. Find out more here.

To view the full course list contact us here or speak to your Search provider for further details.

You choose how you want to learn

01

In-house

We come to you to provide your required training session to your property team(s); presented by either one of our Regional Account Managers, Experienced Incorporated Sustainability and Environmental Professional (PISEP), Environmental Consultants or Professional Legal Experts. Meaning learning consistency and interactive communication across the team.

Book in-house training

02

Join us online

Landmark's training experts will conduct your chosen learning and development session online, enabling your team members to participate from any location while maintaining interactive engagement throughout the workshop.

Book your online sessions

03

Learn in your own time

The Landmark Academy is a free online learning hub, populated with shorter training videos, articles and resources covering key environmental topics presented from the UK's leading environmental and property law professionals. Get started today.

Visit Landmark Academy.

Start learning today

Whether you're looking to meet CPD requirements, strengthen your team's knowledge, or explore emerging risks, Landmark provides flexible training to support you.

“ The Landmark Academy has been designed to provide first-class online training and educational materials to help lawyers meet their competency requirements and other property professionals reach their CPD obligations.

Professor Robert Lee
Professor of Law | University of Birmingham

Test your team's knowledge now and book your bespoke training today.

Take the quiz

Book your training

→ landmark.co.uk

© 2026 Landmark Information Group. All rights reserved.